

Curse of Acid-Stomach

Millions Suffer from It

"Makes the Body Sour"

Why do you see so many sick and ailing folks?
Why doesn't the food you eat make you strong?
Why do you now suffer miseries no one had years ago?
Millions of people have asked this.

Medical books tell the reason. It's an Acid-Stomach—that is, too much acid causes food to pass on a sour, fermenting mass. This sends poisonous germs and harmful acids all over the body, instead of strength and life.

Over seventy non-organic diseases can be traced to Acid-Stomach. It is excess acid, not the food you eat, that starts this trouble. Day and night it goes on, doing ceaseless damage, breeding millions of germs.

If you belch, if your food repeats, if you have heartburn, a miserable, tight, puffed-up feeling after eating, sour stomach, headache, if you are losing weight, if you don't feel "peppy," sleep badly—in fact, ailing in any way—
Get rid of your Acid-Stomach. It's the first step to good health.

Eminent chemists, after years of work, have found a way to easily and naturally take up this excess acid and carry it out of the body.

It is a tablet called EATONIC, easy to remember. Within two years, over half a million people have used it with marvelous benefits. You can prove this in your own case—FREE.

Take EATONIC for five days—see how much better you will feel. EATONIC contains harmless elements that absorb the acid and drive out the gas—in fact, you can fairly feel it work.

Because of its wonderful merit, 25,000 dealers have started selling and have guaranteed EATONIC for Acid-Stomach miseries in the last two years.

Over half a million people now clear out their excess acid with EATONIC. This keeps them well, strong, full of pep, gives them a good appetite, makes them sleep well.

No matter what you have tried—don't give up hope. Call on your druggist and get a big box of EATONIC. It costs but a trifle.

Give it a fair, honest trial for five days—let your own stomach be the judge.

If you are not pleased take it back. It won't cost you one penny unless it proves its worth to you.

Sickly, ailing people—with no pep, nervous, worn out, all in—should try EATONIC—it is guaranteed to help you. It is so easy to get relief—why feel bad any longer? Why not feel better with an Acid-Stomach. Get rid of it—see how much better you will feel.

EAST HADDAM

School was not in session in this district Monday as Miss Beebe was in Hartford visiting school.

William Roberts of Middletown has made several trips to East Haddam, recently locating stocks, and making some purchases.

Miss Mary Balvin, accompanied by her sister and nephew, was visiting friends on the Haddam road, Monday.

J. Warren Stark, master of Pomona grange, Mrs. Stark, Charlotte and Louise Stark, also Arthur Sweet, master of Lyme grange, were here Wednesday attending the thirty-third anniversary celebration of East Haddam grange.

Miss Josephine Hopkins returned to her studies at State College, New York, after being confined to the house with a severe cold.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry
For real effectiveness, this old home-made remedy has no equal. Easily and cheaply prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare, and really there is nothing better for coughs. Into a pint bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex, then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, the full pint saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more soothing, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm run out, and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also a remedy for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and directions, and don't accept anything less. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction, or money refunded. The Pinex Co., St. Wm., Ind.

WESTERLY

Qualified voters in Westerly and the rest of Rhode Island will vote today (Tuesday) to approve or reject the $2,500,000 bond issue for the purpose of paying $100 to each soldier, sailor and marine from the state who served with combatant forces in the world war. The bond issue is for the purpose of constructing and repairing bridges on state highway system, the bonds to be issued as the need arises, and the money to be expended under the supervision of the state board of public roads.

Under the property qualification law, only such voters as pay taxes on real estate, or personal property to the amount of $100, can vote at this election, or at any other in the state where an expenditure of money is involved. It was only two years since that a non-tax paying elector was permitted to serve on a jury in Rhode Island. There are three classes of electors in the state, real estate, personal property, and registry voters. Such conditions do not exist in any state outside of Rhode Island, and no change is made by reason of politics.

The Sabbath Recorder, in the forward movement department, has an article of special local interest which reads: "Cheering news comes from Regional Director Ira B. Crandall of Westerly, that the Pawcatuck South Day Baptist church had secured subscriptions exceeding $1000 per year for the denominational budget for its total membership of 435, thereby considerably overabundant its quota, and more coming. This surely is good news just at this time, and as an encouragement to all the churches which have now engaged on their canvass. The result is not at all surprising, unless it be that the goal was reached sooner than it was expected. In its support of denominational interests, Westerly neither falters or wobbles."

When the director-general visited this church in November, and has message was so kindly received by the large congregation, he was convinced of the excellent conditions that existed in this church. First, that the entire membership was in hearty fellowship with the forward movement, and believed that this step was the wise and proper move for the denomination to make at this time. Second, that Pastor Burdick possessed a vision of the future of the denomination, and meant to each church member in its larger and more spiritual aspect, and proposed that his church should lack neither information, nor interest in this undertaking. The result is the thoroughness of his labors.

The selection of Charles H. Stanton as moderator of the campaign committee, was a guarantee of the complete success of the financial situation. With an exceptionally active and energetic chairman, and through the assistance of Mr. Crandall, the entire membership of the committee, the oversubscription is, therefore, not surprising.

Albert M. Mott, 44, a native of Block Island, died there Saturday. He served as steamboat commissioner, member of the town council, school board, and was a member of the Atlantic Lodge of Masons. He owned all the land at the south end of Salt pond and the Narragansett hotel, at New Bedford. He was a submarine war by the navy as a submarine base. Mr. Mott's survivors by his wife, two daughters and a son.

Two of the favored candidates for the house to succeed Arthur P. Sumner, who is to go to the superior court bench, are William R. Korman of Pawcatuck, floor leader, and Fred J. Owen, of Providence, deputy speaker. Representative Samuel H. Davis of Westerly has been urged by friends to become a candidate. Mr. Davis states that he has no intention of leaving his home, but had not decided whether he would become a candidate.

At an adjourned meeting of Phoebe Ward chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held Monday afternoon, delegates and alternates were elected as follows:
To continental congress to be held in Washington in April, Mrs. Charles W. Clarke, Mrs. H. Davis, delegates and Mrs. Charles L. Segar, Mrs. George F. Barbour, alternates.
List church, Providence, Mrs. Charles W. Clarke, Mrs. Charles L. Segar, Mrs. Samuel H. Davis, Mrs. George F. Barbour, delegates and Mrs. Edwin A. Hall, Mrs. Charles D. Maxson, Mrs. Pannie D. Holmes and Mrs. Frank I. Payne, alternates.

Byron Greene, 71, formerly of Westerly, died Sunday at the home of his son, Albert Greene, in New London. The body will be placed in the vault at River Bend today. Mr. Greene was a member of the Keweenaw Hotel company. He went to New London to live with his son about five years ago. He was a member of Franklin Lodge of Masons.

There was an ice cream famine in Westerly Sunday, due to the temporary shortage of the express company to receive no perishable goods Saturday. Some of the dealers are furnished from Providence and beyond and on Saturday the ice cream arrives here on the 5:30 p. m. train, which happened to be only ten minutes late Saturday. Other local dealers who manufacture ice cream receive their cream from out-of-town and it came under the same express rule that applied to ice cream. No hardship resulted to consumers, but the dealers were deprived of considerable business that is a real loss.

Monday. It was expected to have the rails cleared and traffic resumed between Westerly and Groton before Tuesday morning.

The body of Conductor William Augustus Phillips was placed in the vault at River Bend cemetery Monday, the approach having finally been cleared of snow. His death occurred Thursday and the funeral services were held Saturday.

The highway department has accomplished considerable in clearing the business center of snow. The good work will be continued. The expense will cut a swath in the general appropriation, as no special provision was made for clearing the snow from the streets.

Since the snow came there has been no call for the fire department, Knook wood.

There will be no session of the general assembly Tuesday—election day. Trains are now arriving and leaving Westerly at regular intervals, and soon railroad traffic will become normal.

The ten years period of exemption of the Bradford Dyeing association will soon expire and that concern will be among the largest taxpayers.

It is said that Arthur M. Woodson is the first colored man to be summoned as a grand juror for the superior court for Washington county. Mr. Woodson is assistant janitor of the library and memorial building and a worthy and a worthy and expected citizen of Westerly.

The Stoughton, Ashaway and Watch Hill sections of the Shore Line Electric railway are still blocked with snow and ice.

Milkmen of North Stoughton combined to get their produce to market. A herd of sixteen horses and a bob-sleds broke through the drifts and reached the railroad station in Westerly Saturday night. The milk was shipped to Providence Sunday morning.

The Westerly board of assessors has requested the members of the public meetings for discussion of tax valuation increases and to have speakers advised on the problem. The assessors say there is necessity of making valuations to new present day values.

The clearing of the Bradford-Ashaway highway was completed Monday.

STONINGTON

There will be a special town meeting Thursday night to consider the petition of many citizens favoring the exemption from taxation for a period of ten years of the Lorraine Manufacturing company in Pawcatuck. A similar exemption was made on the original plan of this company, the Clark Thread Mills and the Cottrell plant, in Pawcatuck, as well as other industries in the town. The exemption period on these plants have expired and the town is now reaping the benefit in taxation, as well as the benefits derived from these industries in the town. Another matter for action will be the appropriating of $12,000 for increase in salaries of the teachers, which would permit the payment of $250 or more to each teacher. A petition for moving pictures on Sunday evenings may also be presented.

Narragansett degree team, of Westerly, was selected by District Deputy John Henyon, of Jewett City, to confer the third degree on a large number of candidates at the town hall, Knights of Columbus, Sunday afternoon. Knights were present in large numbers from Westerly, Mystic and New London.

The first west-bound train was more than two hours late Monday morning, and the crowd in the waiting room was larger than at the time of the last winter. The delay was due to the fact that the harbor is now cleared of ice and the fishermen have clear sailing to the open sea.

With several craft moored to a wharf awaiting repairs, including the old time steamer, Chelsea, there is plenty of work in sight. The wharf is expected to be launched this week if the weather permits.

There is not much business doing in the Stoughton town. The war is over, and now that the war is over, agitation has been resumed for the new town hall. It was stated in town meeting three years ago that a citizen was to present a town hall to the town, and that the site for the same had been selected.

The unusual weather conditions, combined with furnace trouble, made it necessary for the members of Grace church parish to attend services Sunday in the chapel rooms, where Rev. M. McLean Goldie officiated.

In the January number of the Parish Leaflet, in which Raymond Congdon's continued story, "The Parish," is giving pleasure to numbers of readers, is the fact that the first marriage recorded in the parish was that of Edmund Clarence Stedman. The wife and writings have been known throughout the United States and whose husband had been recently so unfortunately recalled by Miss Margaret Fuller of Norwich town in her book, "A New England Childhood."

His bride was Miss Laura H. Woodworth of Killingly.

An unusual number of copies of The Bulletin's New Year's supplement calendar have been requested by out of town friends of local people who have learned that it is a reproduction of Fuller's story, the building often found in the same story, as it depicts one of Edmund C. Stedman's early haunts.

Some of the meetings planned by the members of the parish had to be abandoned during the latter part of the week, because of Thursday's storm. Yantic hasn't been so completely snow-bound in thirty years as it was during Thursday and Friday, and until noon Saturday. The village school was closed all Friday and the nearby country schools also. No first class mails arrived Friday and not until late Saturday. Under the unusual conditions, trolley service was good. The last car into the village Thursday was at 3 p. m., but Friday morning the trolley came at seven and maintained a fairly good schedule all day and until midnight, accommodating the large number who went from here to Norwich to enjoy "Tumble Inn."

The roads were hard to get over as they drifted and until heavy sleds packed them down it was almost impossible to break through the drifts. Sunday the state road snow plow was kept busy opening or widening the state road pathway between here and Groton.

POETRY

DIMENSIONS
(From the New York Sun and Herald.)
I took a turn in Portland
There on the window pane,
Where pictures of the mountains
Are in the self-same plane.
And where the pleasure gardens
Are all one color—blue
Those gardens have their magic
Through tubes of crystal blue,
Or shining on the snow
Through all its monotony.

I dreamed that Frostland dwellers
Were with this lot content.
Savonore, peace or prophet,
Whose thought for living went
He said—but none attended:
I have no doubt that he
There is, though past our vision,
A ray beyond the white:
And past our silent threshold,
Are tones of rare delight!

And I, who knew the rainbow,
The octave's singing flight—
How well I could have answered,
If any answer might!
But that scene dissolved away
My three spaced world enclosed me
(Where I content I stray—
I was here, but not here)
(Which I cannot forget)
A ray had been elected
Beyond the white,
And tones (perchance alysian)
By us unguessed yet.

Is there in Space Onlying,
One who would answer—
Whose eye those tones can gather,
Whose eye those tones can gather,
